This is not about religion, but about spirituality, about age old traditions that guide men into manhood, about coming to trust that there is something much greater at work in their lives than they could ever imagine.

Belden Lane, a Presbyterian Minister, highly recommended by Richard Rohr OFM, is a lecturer of theology in the Jesuit university of St Louis. He has served as a retreat leader and Weaver at Rites of Passage programs from Arizona to Australia. He also works with the Mankind Project. He is a great storyteller. His special interest is in the spirituality of the desert experience.
